

“One More River” Questions

1. She was reluctant because she had a good life in Saskatoon and lots of friends and she didn't want to leave them behind and go to Israel a country that she didn't know much about.

2. Her father was determined to go and take his family to Israel because it is the only Jewish country in the world.

3. Noah was expelled from the family because he fell in love with a Catholic girl called Donna and she thought that he got her pregnant and because she was Catholic it wasn't good to be pregnant and not married so Noah had to convert to be a Catholic to get married to Donna. Noah's dad didn't like that and expelled him from the family. It turned out that Donna wasn't pregnant after all and so it was all for nothing!

The advice Noah gave to Lesley was to go to Israel, to read books about Israel and learn Hebrew.

4. Their early weeks in Tel Aviv were hard because they didn't know Hebrew and they had to live in a tiny stone hut.

5. It is modern and very comfortable, new, well organised. There are green lawns nice trees and a pool.

6. She learns that they are aggressive and they don't like Jews at all.

7. The dare was to go down river until she found a bridge then go to the middle of the bridge and put a chalk mark then go back to the camp. It was dangerous because she might be captured by the Arabs.

8. We learn that he is not heartless and cruel to animals. That he stole Lesley's picture from her house.

9. Noah comes to the Kibbutz to fight for the Israelis and help out at the Kibbutz. Because he is a Jew and Jews come from Israel.

10. The people in the Kibbutz had to dig massive trenches all over the lawns and put in bomb shelters. They had to practice drills.